

Allow yourself more - Enjoy Romania's Attractions!

It is not too much to say that Romania is an attraction in itself, a country with a tremendous potential engaged in profound transformations. It is a place of constant change, a link between traditions and modern trends, a mosaic of cultures, historical sites.

Leave stress behind and Enjoy your time ! Get off the beaten track and discover a country which has something to reveal to everyone. Trade stress and daily routine for an unforgettable and rewarding experience.

It is not too much to say that Romania is an attraction in itself, a country with a tremendous potential engaged in profound transformations. It is a place of constant change, a link between traditions and modern trends, a mosaic of cultures and historical sites.

Leave stress behind and Enjoy your time ! Get off the beaten track and discover a country which has something to reveal to everyone. Trade stress and daily routine for an unforgettable and rewarding experience.

Enjoy the sight and the history of the Romanian Citadels, Fortresses and historical monuments. Take a walk through the ruins of Suceava Citadel, former residence of Moldavia, wander among the ruins of Sarmisegetusa Ulpia Traiana fortress and take the tour of some of the best preserved castles in Europe such as Peles and Pelisor in Sinaia, Corvinesti Castle in Hunedoara, Bran Castle near Brasov and many more. Experience the medieval citadel of Sighisoara, one of the best preserved in Europe.

No matter whether you are a nature lover, a passionate historian or just someone looking for a breath of fresh air, there is definitely something you can enjoy in Romania.

Discover the delights of Romanian traditional cuisine and drinks in quality hostels or guest houses, take a walk off the beaten track and experience the colorful rural communities. Meet people dressed in their traditional costumes, still living according to their traditions, share their stories and indulge yourself in the unequalled hospitality you meet throughout the country.

For those interested in Romanian Genealogy, there is a great potential for finding your roots, turning relaxing travel into a rewarding experience. Jewish records, cemeteries, memorials, Saxon heritage still standing, they are all waiting to be discovered and given a historical and genealogical meaning. Last but not least, meeting local people eager to share their stories in the atmosphere of their own homes can add quite a great deal to the authenticity of your quest and provide a great historical framework for your research. Solve your genealogical puzzle while enjoying your holiday in Romania !